S.S. Cooperative's Membership Day Planned July 19

"The Membership Day," according to managers, Ronald Coleman and e Dan G. Coleman, "will give patrons and members the opportunity to become better acquainted with our facilities, products and services. The local election is being held prior to the meeting and members voting by mail ballots. Members who have not marked their mail ballot should do so and deposit it in the ballot box prior to the beginning of the meeting, so their vote will be counted. All stockholder members are particularly urged to attend the business session."

Edwin Anderson of Appomattox will serve as chairman of the local meeting.

G. M. Slater of Richmond, a member of Southern States Cooperative's regional staff, will report on the over-all Southern States operations. His report will also include the showing of a movie entitled "From This Land - a Tribute to the Family Farmer," which was produced by the National Council of Farmer Coopratives and the American Institute of Cooperation. The film stresses the importance of the family farmer and implies the meaningful role of farmer cooperatives in our agricultural system.

Theme of the meeting will be, "Southern States, Your Family Farm Partner."

There will be special recognition for local board and Farm Home Advisory Committee members who retire this year.

Nominees for the local board are: R. S. Brown, W. W. Wallis, Pamplin, Boyd Thompson, Lynchburg and Jimmy E. Tweedy of Rustburg.

Ladies nominated for the Farm Home Advisory Committee are: Mrs. Edwin Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Drinkard, Jr., Mrs. O. B. Garriss of Appomattox and Mrs. James W. Eller of Red House.

The wedding is being planned for November 17th.

"Camelot" Theater Production

Casting has been completed and rehearsals are feverishly underway for the Daniel Players' summer production of the Lerner and Loewe mucical, "Camelot".

"Camelot" is scheduled as a dinner theater presentation July 19th, 20th, and 21st. It is to be performed in the Lower Dining Room at Longwood College.

"Camelot" retells the legend of King Arthur, Guenevere, and Lancelot, one of the great romances in all literature. The score glows with such melodies as the title song, "Camelot", "The lusty month of May", "How to handle a woman", "If ever I would leave you", and "What do the simple folk do".

Heading the cast are two veteran Daniel Players singing actors, Robert Webber and Mary Breeden as King Arthur and Guenevere, and Daniel Player new-comer, Tom Cantieri, as Lancelot.

In supporting roles are I. B. Dent, Henry Emmerson, Larry Tharpe, Diahnn Simonini, and Chris Young.

Other cast members include Tom Willis, John Samford, Calvin Faulkner, Gregg Chiles, Anne Watkins, Karen Fratrick, Jim and Lusnne Dumminger, Betsy Duncan, Chris Breeden, and Cheryl Adams.

Overall direction is by Dudley Sauve. Sixteen Scenic projections have been designed by Homer Springer. Musical accompaniment will be by Dr. Robert Blasch.

Ticket information and reservations can be had by calling 392-8508.

Arts Festivals Scheduled In State Parks

Arts and Crafts Festivals will highlight July activities in two Virginia State Parks, announced Virginia State Parks Commissioner, Ben H. Bolen. The festivals will be held July 14 and 15 at Chippokes Plantation State Park, Surry, Va., and July 13, 14, and 15 at Hungry Mother State Park, Marion, Virginia.

Chippokes Planation will be the site of th Pork, Peanut, and Pine Festival, with a theme centered around Surry County's three leading industries. Situated in the midst of the formal gardens of Chippokes' Antebellum mansion, a variety of food, arts and crafts, and entertainment will be featured.

The sixth annual Hungry Mother State Park Arts and Crafts Festival is being sponsored in cooperation with the Art League of Marion and the Smyth County Family YMCA. The event will feature exhibits and demonstrations with bluegrass and country music provided by local artists.

There is no admission charge at the Pork, Peanut and Pine Festival at Chippokes Plantation . Exhibits will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. For further information, contact Mr. William B. Sheally, Box 215, Claremont, VA 23899, or Mrs. Dale Fuss, Surry, VA 23883.

Schewel Plans To Open Store in Farmville

The Schewel Furniture Co. has announced that their firm is proceeding with plans to open a new complete, full-service store in Farmville.

According to Betram R. Schewel, company president, the new store will be located in the 12,000 square-foot building on Main Street in downtown Farmville presently occupied by the Hub Department Store.

The Schewel company maintains its headquarters in Lynchburg, with other stores operated in Winchester, Culpeper, Front Royal, Luray, Harrisonburg, Lynchburg, Lexington, Amherst, Bedford, Danville and South Boston.

In North Carolina, the firm has stores in Reidsville, Henderson and Roxboro.

In addition to the main stores, the firm also operates exchange stores in Danville Culpeper, Winchester and Harrisonburg.

The Schewel Furniture Co. began its operations in Lynchburg in 1897 and its founder was Elias Schewel, grandfather of the present president and vice president. He was greatgrandfather of the present secretary.

The firm celebrated its 82nd anniversary in May of this year.

Present officers are Bertram R. Schewel, president and treasurer; State Sen. Elnott S. Schewel, vice president; Stanford L. Schewel, second vice president; Marc Allen Schewel, secretary, and Charles B. Staples, assistant secretary and comptroller.

The new Farmville store will be managed by Tom Friday, who is being promoted from assistant manager of a smaller store in Bedford.

The Farmville store will be a part of the division supervised by Marc Schewel.

A company spokesman says the new Farmville store will carry a complete line of furniture, accessories, carpets and major appliances, including refrigerators, ranges, stereos, televisions and other electronic-related items.

The building which now houses the Hub Department Store will be occupied by the Schewel firm immediately after the Hub closes its doors.

Sen. Elliott Schewel, vice president in charge of real estater, has advised that several contractors are presently working on plans for completely remodeling the front and making extensived renovations and repairs to the interior of the Farmville store.

Schewel said, "All our people are looking forward with enthusiasm to joining the business community in Farmville and we promise to open a store that your town as well as our company will be proud of."

No exact date has been set for the opening. The opening date will depend on the final closing of the Hub Department Store and how long the modifications and renovations will take the contractor.
